SAVING SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA’S
NATIVE PLANT SEED

How can seed banking benefit southern California residents? What is the role of seed banking in native plant conservation, and how will it grow into the future? This introduction to current regional seed banking efforts will be followed by tips for the home gardener in effectively collecting, cleaning and storing seeds of native plants.

Our speaker is Genevieve Arnold, Seed Program Manager, at the Theodore Payne Foundation for Wild Flowers & Native Plants

AUGUST 15 • SATURDAY • 10 AM

This meeting is only online. Please register in advance for this webinar at https://bit.ly/RSBAugust

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar from your smartphone, tablet or computer.